

Prosser Public Library Book Group Kits

Book Group Kits, canvas bags containing multiple copies of a single title, are available for loan to individuals who are members of local area book groups.

How the program works:

- One member of the group borrows the kit for the group with his or her library card.
- That person is responsible for distributing the books to group members and for returning all books after the discussion. The bag and its entire contents must be returned to the library at the same time.
- Kits may be returned to any branch of the Bloomfield Public Libraries but may not be returned in a book drop.
- The individual borrowing the kit will be responsible for any fines.
- The loan period for a kit is 3 weeks. Kits may be renewed once.
- Kits may be requested by calling the Reference Desk at the Prosser Public Library at 860-243-9721. The kits may not be reserved online.
